

SUPPORT THE WORLD BANK IN CO-HOSTING THE REDD PARTNERSHIP SECRETARIAT

As of: September 2021

The BMU promoted the REDD+ Partnership of the World Bank with a grant of 800,000 €. This partnership was founded in 2010 and aimed at strengthening the cooperation between donor and REDD+ countries as well as advancing the development of a REDD+ mechanism. Within this partnership, Germany mainly supported the inclusion of Safeguards and the participation of civil society representatives. Main tasks included developing a voluntary database for a better coordination and improving the exchange of experiences on REDD+. The REDD+ Partnership ended with the inclusion of a REDD+ mechanism in the successor of the Kyoto Protocol which was adopted at the COP 2015 in Paris.
