IKI Medium Grants 2022

Call now open

IKI Medium Grants programme is open until 13 December

The IKI Medium Grants programme 2022 has began and is seeking out ideas worldwide for projects to involve young people in the generation-appropriate design of national climate goals and for integrated biodiversity and climate protection in cooperation between civil society and the private sector.

The selection procedure will run until 13 December 2022 and has a grant of between 300,000 to 800,000 euros per project. More information on the grant is available on the IKI website.
