

LAUNCHED: NEW INTERNATIONAL CLIMATE INITIATIVE WEBSITE

The International Climate Initiative (IKI) is proud to present its new website. Visitors and users can expect an optimized site structure that makes information about the IKI, project management, and grant applications more accessible. The new online presence is accompanied by an expanded scope and leadership of the IKI. From 2022, the Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology (BMWK) will be in charge of the IKI. BMWK will implement IKI projects in a joint effort together with the Federal Ministry for the Environment (BMUV) and the Federal Foreign Office (AA).
